

Coach Kevin Gue– Athletic Coaching Inductee
Wrestling Coach

Coach Gue began his wrestling coaching career with Holton Public Schools in 2008. He quickly began to rebuild a dominating wrestling program.

Over the next five seasons, Coach Gue provided the leadership, intensity, and vision that defined Holton Wrestling. His dedication to his wrestlers was evident in every practice and competition. Under his leadership, numerous Holton Wrestlers earned conference, district, regional, and state recognition including three state placers. In 2012, Coach Gue and his team made school history by capturing District and Regional Championships and qualifying for the MHSAA State Team Tournament.

Coach Gue left a lasting legacy on Holton Wrestling. Many of his former wrestlers can now be found across West Michigan, continuing to coach and support the next generation of wrestlers – a true testament to his lasting impact. Those who had the privilege of wrestling for him remember not only the victories but also the lessons in perseverance, teamwork, and pride.

For his leadership, contributions, and unwavering passion for Holton Wrestling, the Holton Athletics Hall of Fame Board is honored to induct Coach Kevin Gue.
